SSHA Graduate Student Travel Awards

The SSHA Graduate Student Travel Awards will be given to up to thirty graduate students who are presenting papers or posters at the 2011 SSHA Annual Meeting. Students whose paper or poster has non-student co-authors are not eligible. To be considered for these travel awards, students must complete the application form.

The awards will be based on the quality of the application, and will be announced late summer 2011.

The award carries a cash prize of $300 (for North American winners) or $500 (for winners residing outside of North America).

The awards will be presented at the plenary Business Meeting and Presidential Address on November 19, 2011

Students should apply for the awards below; they also must have submitted conference proposals to the program committee, as part of the regular process, by the appropriate deadline (including proposal title, abstract, and list of all co-authors). The award application must include the following information:

- Name of applicant
- Institution and Department
- Postal address
- E-mail address
- Confirmation of graduate student status
- Confirmation that proposal includes no non-student co-authors

Applications will be judged by a committee appointed by the President of the Association.

Applications will open soon .

SSHA Graduate Student Travel Awards are sponsored by the Social Science History Association.
